We've chosen sweet Natasha as this week's Kitty of The Week over at OKR!! in Catsterland. This is a copy of her keepsake picture. We thought we uploaded it to with her gift on her page, but didn't work, MOL!!

Teach Bam Thank you so much. She is my sweet guardian angel. She was a friend to Ashlynne and also had the same problem of an iris melanoma...Natasha would cuddle so easily and purr into your ear. She loved to groom all of us. My daughter wore a ski hat when Natasha first came to us since Natasha would give her a hair shampoo. We miss her terribly but she sent Julie to be Alex's new friend. Thank you..
